

Robert P. Wood

Member

robert.wood@rogerstownsend.com

Columbia, SC

Direct 803.744.1275

EDUCATION

University of South Carolina School of Law,
J.D., 1980

Furman University, B.A., cum laude, 1977

ADMISSIONS

South Carolina Bar, 1980

Virgin Islands Bar Association, 2005

United States District Court, District of South Carolina

District Court of the Virgin Islands

United States Supreme Court, 2010

United States Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit, 1989

United States Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit, 1998

United States Court of Appeals, Eighth Circuit, 1997

United States Court of Federal Claims

MEMBERSHIPS

South Carolina Bar
-Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee

Virgin Islands Bar Association

American Board of Trial Advocates

Richland County Bar Association

Blythewood Historical Society and Museum

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Order of the Wig and Robe

Eagle Scout

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation, Bankruptcy, Commercial and Business Litigation, Creditor – Lender Litigation, Mortgage Banking and Creditor Services, Lawyers' Professional Responsibility, Real Estate Litigation, Appeals

Bob Wood concentrates his practice in civil litigation, with particular emphasis in commercial litigation, business torts, real estate litigation, insurance litigation, and appeals. He has been called on several times in the last few years to observe and assist lawyers in other firms as they protect the trial record for a possible appeal. He also counsels attorneys on legal ethics and defends legal malpractice suits and grievances. In 2016, Bob was appointed by Governor Nikki Haley to the South Carolina Board of Accountancy.

He has been listed in Best Lawyers in America since 2013 for Banking and Finance Law and in Commercial Litigation. He has also been listed in Super Lawyers for Business Litigation. He has an AV rating in Martindale-Hubbell.